

ABIM 2018 announced its most successful event to date. A total of 1,159 delegates representing 526 companies and coming from 52 countries across the globe attended ABIM 2018. The program covered a variety of topics for the industry and provided a great opportunity for networking with other manufacturers and suppliers active in the biocontrol industry.

Published in November 2018 edition of 2BMonthly